ORDER:

In the Memo. 1st read above, disciplinary proceedings have been initiated against Smt. M.Padmavathi, Senior Assistant, along with others on the allegation that she, while working as Senior Assistant in the O/o. Deputy Transport Commissioner, Nellore has committed grave misconduct that an un-accounted amount of Rs.13,200/- was found on her table and engaged private persons to collect illegal gratifications from the public and was also found absent from 14.30 hours to 17.30 hours in the office.

2. In the G.O. 4th read above, orders were issued appointing an Inquiring Authority against Smt. M. Padmavathi, Senior Assistant, along with others. In his letter 5th read above, the Inquiring Authority submitted his report duly holding that the charge framed against her as not proved.

3. After examining the Enquiry Report, Government have not accepted the findings of the Enquiry Officer and in the Memo. 6th read above, while furnishing the disagreement factors, a copy of the enquiry report received through the letter 5th read above was communicated to Smt. M. Padmavathi, Senior Assistant.

4. In her representation 7th read above, Smt. M. Padmavathi, Senior Assistant, has submitted her representation and stated that the amount was found in the back side of the computer on her table and that at that time, she was not in the office; that the Government cash was in her table drawer under lock and key and her personal cash is with her; that the ACB officials verified the Government cash as well as personal cash and found no variation; that no person would leave such large amount of rupees unsecured while going out when having facility of keeping cash under lock and key that too while going out; that her table was in the hall and accessible to every body in the hall; that it cannot be said in all fairness that she required to account for the cash purported to have been found back side of the computer and therefore requested to drop further action against her.

5. Government after careful examination of the matter have observed that she was not available at the time of surprise check and the Government cash was with her table drawer under lock and key and her personal cash is with her and therefore decided to agree with the contention of the charged officer and to drop further action against her.

6. Accordingly, Government hereby drop further action against Smt. M.Padmavathi, Senior Assistant.

7. The Transport Commissioner shall take further action accordingly.
